PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The UK is leading in corporate sustainability reporting with robust regulations like the Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive (CSRD), which mandates comprehensive ESG disclosures to enhance transparency and accountability. However, compliance poses challenges; 46% of FTSE 100 companies have revised their climate and sustainability scores due to data inaccuracies, highlighting the complexities of maintaining reliable reporting standards.

This certified program equips you with a comprehensive understanding of the evolving landscape of sustainability regulations and reporting frameworks. It covers key global standards such as GRI, SASB, and TCFD, alongside the upcoming UK Sustainability Reporting Standards (UK SRS), expected in 2025. You will gain practical skills in selecting appropriate CSR standards, conducting materiality assessments, and integrating financial and non-financial reporting.

Throughout the program, you will gain specialized knowledge in areas including data collection, automation techniques, and leveraging digital reporting platforms to streamline processes. The program emphasizes critical aspects such as preparing for ESRS (CSRD), aligning CSR strategies with UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), measuring greenhouse gas emissions, and understanding the concept of double materiality to ensure compliance with current and future regulations.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

You will also explore IFRS Integrated Reporting, focusing on harmonizing financial and non-financial reporting for stakeholder value. The program addresses the future of CSR, Net Zero strategies, and environmental risk assessments, providing actionable insights into developing tailored CSR action plans and comprehensive reports.

By focusing on stakeholder engagement and aligning CSR initiatives with investor priorities, the program ensures that you can drive meaningful collaboration and innovation in corporate sustainability reporting. Combining regulatory compliance with strategic foresight, this program prepares professionals to lead effectively in the rapidly evolving sustainability landscape.

Upon completing this program and passing the Chartered exam, you will attain the Certified UK Corporate Sustainability Reporting Manager (CSRM™), enhancing your professional credentials and demonstrating your ability to contribute strategically to corporate sustainability efforts. This industry-recognized certification has lifelong validity and will position you as a leader in this field.
